

HMA Corin Robertson

British Ambassador to Mexico

Corin Robertson has been Her Majesty's Ambassador to Mexico since October 2018. Corin joined Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service in 1994, and has been posted previously to Japan, Brussels, Canada and now Mexico.

>> As Ambassador to Mexico, her priorities are to continue to strengthen the bilateral relationship between the United Kingdom and Mexico, to promote trade relations and to work with the Mexican Government to deliver projects focused on poverty alleviation, climate change, education, rule of law, financial services and energy. <<

Before taking up her Ambassadorial appointment, Corin was the Director for Estates and Security in the Foreign and Commonwealth Office, running the overseas diplomatic estate and security operation. She also served as Director in the National Security Secretariat. From 2011-14 she was Deputy High Commissioner to Canada, and held previous roles as Head of the Counter Terrorism Department (2008-11), Business Engagement Advisor (2007-8) and working on European Union issues (2000-2006) among other things.

Corin is passionate about diversity and inclusion, and enjoys film, reading and spending time with her husband and two children, getting to know the country. She is from Sheffield, graduated in French and Spanish from Cambridge University and spent a year teaching English in Colombia where she developed a love for Latin American culture, history and literature.

Ambassador Wilfred Mohr

Ambassador of the Kingdom of the Netherlands to Mexico and Belize

Name: Wilfred Mohr

Place and date of birth: Son en Breugel, The Netherlands, June 1st 1959

University: Rijksuniversiteit Groningen, Business Economy (1979 - 1985)

He joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1986 and has worked in Norway & Indonesia, in addition to the Department of the Directorates of International Organizations; European Integration, Asia and Oceania, and Human Resources.

- 2020 – Present: Ambassador
- 2019 – 2020: Advisor to the Department of Human Resources, Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
- 2016 – 2019: Inspector.
- 2012 – 2016: Consul General in Hong Kong and Macao.
- 2010 – 2012: Netherlands Agency, Member of the Export Promotion Directorate Board (Ministry of Economic Affairs, Agriculture and Innovation).
- 2006 – 2010: Deputy Director of Human Resources.
- 2007: Charge d'Affaires a.i. Dutch Embassy in Kabul, Afghanistan

Alejandro Segura

General Manager for Nature Based Solutions in Latin America, Shell

In his current role, Alejandro oversees Shell's efforts in the region to invest in natural ecosystems as part of Shell's strategy to limit the impact of global climate change, including actively contributing to the development of voluntary and compliance carbon markets to address Green House Gas emissions generated by Shell's customers when using its products. Alejandro joined Shell in 2016 as New Business Development Manager Brazil and successfully led and closed several investments during his tenure. Before joining Shell Alejandro held roles in legal, compliance, M&A, deal delivery and asset commercial with regional accountability throughout Latin America; first at Curtis Mallet-Prevost Colt and Mosle in New York, then at the Inter-American Development Bank in Washington D.C., and later at BG both Rio de Janeiro and Houston. Alejandro is both a Mexican and Brazilian national, a lawyer by training, and is fluent in English, Spanish and Portuguese.

Tom George

Head of Global Issues at British Embassy Mexico City

Tom George is a diplomat with over 10 years' experience developing policy and programmes, managing and leading teams, and building international partnerships to tackle key global challenges. Currently, he is the Head of Global Issues Team at the British Embassy Mexico City, overseeing teams providing policy advice, reporting and programme management for climate change, energy, future cities, financial services, health and education sectors. Before joining the Diplomatic Service, he worked as a management consultant, providing strategic and risk management consultancy and industry analysis primarily to the metals and mining sectors.

Han Feenstra

Senior Policy Advisor at the Energy Market Department

Han Feenstra is senior policy advisor at the Energy Market Department, Directorate-General for Energy, Telecommunications and Competition, Ministry of Economic Affairs since 2009. He is mainly involved in gas policy and international energy relations. He graduated as Sinologist from the University of Leiden and worked at the Netherlands Trade & Investment Office in Taipei from 1995 to 2000. In 2000 he joined the Ministry of Economic Affairs in The Hague, at the headquarters of the Netherlands Foreign Investment Agency (NFIA). From 2004 to 2009 he was Executive Director for the NFIA in China, based at the Netherlands's consulate in Shanghai.